

You are invited for an evening with

Rick Guidotti,

photographer and founder of Positive Exposure and PEARLS project.

Tuesday, April 8th!!

7:00 – 8:30 pm

Westchester Jewish Center

Join members of the Westchester Jewish Center community and students from our Religious School and Hebrew High School who participated in the PEARLS project for an engaging and enriching opportunity. Rick will share his passion for finding beauty in all individuals and allow us to walk through his photo gallery.

POSITIVE EXPOSURE, founded in 1997 by former fashion photographer Rick Guidotti and Diane McLean, MD, PhD, MPH, is a highly innovative arts organization working with individuals living with developmental and genetic differences. Positive Exposure utilizes photography and video to transform public perceptions of people living with genetic, physical and behavioral differences – from albinism to autism.

A NIGHT NOT TO BE MISSED!

Questions and RSVP? Contact Aleza @ 698-2866

The “PEARLS Project,” an innovative program of Positive Exposure (www.positiveexposure.org) was provided through a grant from the Oppenheimer Haas Foundation.
